July 16, 1937 Ducky & the Duck Fans Disagree

Dayton Duck fans, angered by the actions of manager Howard Elbert "Ducky" Holmes, pelt the field with a barrage of seat cushions and soda bottles after Holmes forcibly removes the team's popular catcher Charley Schupp in the sixth inning of the second game of a Middle Atlantic (C) League doubleheader.

A crowd of 2,500 is upset with Holmes after he grabs Schupp by the chest protector and yanks him into the dugout. The angry fans also turn their allegiance to visiting Canton and boo the home team for the remainder of the game.

A 19-year-old rookie, Schupp had asked Holmes to take him out of the game after being charged with three passed balls. The volatile manager accuses Schupp of lacking courage and decides to send in first-string catcher John Reis. When Schupp appears reluctant to "quit the scene" Holmes attempts to tear his chest protector from him and pulls him to the dugout.

When Holmes appears on the coaching in the bottom of the sixth inning the barrage increases until the police, fearing a full scale riot, ask the manager to leave the field.

CANTON.

Holmes is later fined $100 for his actions but is retained as the team's manager only after he promises to conduct himself in a more "dignified manner" on the ball field.
