May 25, 1910

With only one win in 14 decisions, 1910 was not a particularly good year for Brandon Angels' right-handed pitcher Charles Earl.

However, on the afternoon of May 25, Earl has his "One Shining Moment" when he out-duels future major leaguer Dave Skeels in a 3-2 win over visiting Moose Jaw.

Earl limits the visiting Robin Hoods to six hits while striking out two and walking one

In his next start nine days later (June 3) against Edmonton, Earl yields only eight hits in 11 innings, but drops a 2-1 decision to Edmonton ace Phil Dellar.

In two seasons (1909-1910) in the Western Canada League with Brandon, Earl is a combined 7-26, including a 6-13 mark in 1909.

Brandon, Man., May 25.—Playing snappy ball at the right time Brandon took the evening game from Moose Jaw tonight by the score of 3 to 2. The heady base running put up by the Angels was responsible for their win. Skeels, of the strike-out fame, on the mound for the visitors out-pitched Earl, the locals only getting four hits to the visitors' six. The score:
