

Highlighted by an 11-run sixth inning, the Bluefield Blue-Grays score in every stanza en route to a 35-5 Appalachian (D) League win over the visiting Pulaski Counts ... the Blue Grays have their way with four Count pitchers - Worth Cuthbertson, Paul Compton, Howard "Skeeter" Jenkins, Billy Flint (making his only pitching appearance of the year) and Kay Rudisill, pounding out a season-high 31 hits before 500 fans at Bluefield's Bowen Field.

Pulaski (55-49) commits nine errors, including three by pitcher-turned-center fielder Fay DePriest and two by rookie right fielder John Abernethy ... the 35 runs and nine errors are both Appalachian League records.

Bluefield (43-62) is led by All-Star first baseman Thomas Zikmund and third baseman Albert Orlando ... Zikmund hits for the cycle, with three singles, two doubles, a triple and a home run with seven runs scored and five RBIs ... Orlando is 5-for-6 with two doubles, one triple, one home run and seven RBIs.

Notes: During the game, four different fires are started under the grandstand ... 22-year-old Bluefield left-hander Ray Guard takes advantage of the support, striking out eight, walking four and allowing 11 hits in a route-going victory.

Not all is Lost: Before the game, Appalachian League President Carl A. Jones, Jr., notifies Pulaski that Bristol's protest of a July 29 game will not be allowed ... Bristol manager Don Cross claimed that a ball going through a screen barrier near the Calfee Park entrance should have been ruled a home run instead of a double as allowed by the umpires.

However Jones rules:

"I am of the opinion that Rule 41, Section 3 would apply in the case. While the rules do not specifically allow that the ball going through, or under, the fence be limited to a two-base hit, I am of the opinion that such would be the case."
