

PHILADELPHIA

The last-place Philadelphia Athletics snap a three-game losing streak defeating the visiting New York Yankees 8-2 in front of 23 loyal and rain-soaked fans in Shibe Park.

According to a report in the New York Sun, most of the fans "came in on coupons."

A severe thunderstorm sweeps over the Philadelphia area just before game time soaking the field with a heavy rain and causing a one-hour delay for the first pitch. With the field "covered in mud", the game begins with more ball players in attendance than fans.
