©DiamondsintheDusk.com

On July 15, 1906, with a complete reorganization of the dysfunctional Battle Creek franchise ongoing, and in an effort to reorganize itself into a six-team circuit, Interstate League refugee Saginaw is granted mid-season membership in the Southern Michigan League.

To enhance league balance and competitiveness, both the Saginaw and the reconstituted Battle Creek nines are granted a unique "average start on an even basis," where both teams' won-loss records are determined by an average of the league's standings - a record half way between the first and last place clubs.

When Saginaw begins play on July 18, the team is assigned a record of 15-20 - the average between first place Mt. Clemens and last place Battle Creek.

On the strength of a seven-hit complete game by 30-year-old Nel Mason, Saginaw makes its debut before a crowd of 950 at Recreation Park, rallying for a 5-4 win over the visiting Bathers of Mt. Clemens.

Four days later, on July 22, and bolstered by another "average start on even basis," and a similar 15-20 record, the Battle Creek Creekites make their reappearance in Southern Michigan League play by dropping an 11-inning 6-5 decision to Kalamazoo.

On July 16, one day after Saginaw is admitted to the league, Battle Creek releases all of their players with the exception of Jack Landry, Mike Keveney and Waddell. Battle Creek eventually forfeits a game to Tecumseh, rather than play a game before a new team can be formed.

It had been hoped that the players from the Flint Vehics, which had been playing independent ball since the Interstate League disbanded earlier, would arrive in town on July 17 and don Battle Creek uniforms that afternoon in a Southern Michigan League game against Mt. Clemens.

Battle Creek, fielding a minor league team for the first time in four years, has the league's best attendance totals, often exceeding 2,000 for Sunday games despite its 4-37 record.

Given a second chance of fielding a minor league team, things however don't as planned for Saginaw. First, the team begins a sale of season ticket books on August 6, in an effort to raise money to pay for better players.

SOUTHERN MICHIGAN LEAGUE CHRONOLOGY

January 29

The Southern Michigan League forms following a meeting in Battle Creek ... Joe Jackson, the sports editor of the Detroit Free Press, is named league president ... each team will play three games a week ... a salary limit of $800 per month is established.

February 19

The National Baseball Commission awards the Michigan cities of Jackson and Kalamazoo to the Southern Michigan League, setting up a showdown with the Interstate League, which claims Kalamazoo as a member and a manager who owns the local ball grounds and wants nothing to do with the Southern Michigan League.

March 19

A new stadium is being built in Saginaw.

April 1

First baseman Jock Somerlott signs with both Kalamazoo and Fort Wayne ... the Flint, Michigan, native however will eventually play for Winnipeg of the Northern Copper County (C) League in 1906 .... Somerlott will play parts of two seasons (1910-11) with the Washington Senators.

Burroughs Adding Machine Company Baseball Team

May 6

In an exhibition game, Battle Creek beats the Burroughs Adding Machine of Detroit 9-2 before an estimated 1,000 fans at Battle Creek.

May 15

The Southern Michigan League makes its debut with a pair of season openers ... before 2,400 fans, the largest crowd to witness a baseball game in Battle Creek, the home-standing Creekites beat Kalamazoo 7-4 ... In Jackson, before 1,565 fans, Mt. Clemons beats the Convicts 4-3 on a ninth inning RBI single by William Hessberger.

May 24

After opening the season with seven-straight games on the road, the Mt. Clemons Bathers allow two unearned runs in the fourth inning and drop a 2-1 decision to Jackson in their home opener before a record crowd of 1,847.

June 2

Mt. Clemons beats Battle Creek 21-0, dropping the Creekites' record to 1-12.

intent to "retire" from the association, citing "raw deals" by umpires at Fort Wayne, Anderson and Marion.

June 19

Lima president C.H. Chappell reconsiders his decision to drop out of the Interstate League and elects to play his team's scheduled game at Marion where they drop a 2-0 decision.

June 22

Big day in the Southern Michigan League ... all five leagues teams agree to "amplify" the schedule starting on July 4 ... citing a lack of "solid" semipro teams, league teams will now play each other in series' of two games instead of a single game ... four towns have asked about possible admission to the league - Saginaw, Bay City, Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor ... Saginaw, which earlier had dropped out of the Interstate League, is playing independent ball.

June 23

Tecumseh beats Jackson 2-0 in a game that takes only 65 minutes to play ... Tecumseh's Harvey "Schoolmaster" Teal allows only two hits and faces only 28 batters in picking up the win ... Teal was only 17 years old when he earned his first teaching job in Seneca, Ohio, in 1897 ... following a 21-5 mark for Tecumseh in 1907, the Philadelphia Athletics draft Teal, but the thin right-hander ends up with the St. Paul Saints of the American (AA) Association where he posts a 6-12 mark.

June 27

Manager Black, of the Battle Creek team, is arrested in Mt. Clemens for slugging Umpire O'Connor ... the arbiter refuses to lodge a complaint against Black, so the case is dropped.

July 6

Seventeen-year-old third baseman Fred Merkle, two years shy of his famous base-running blunder, hits a third-inning home run to lead Tecumseh to a 19-10 win over visiting Mt. Clemens.

July 8

Despite five new players in the starting lineup, the song remains the same as Battle Creek drops to 4-31 with a 12-4 loss to Tecumseh.

July 15

In on-going roster moves, Battle Creek turns to a local amateur in a game against Jackson ... Shelts, a pitcher signed just prior to the game, allows only four hits, but plunks four Jackson batters, including left fielder and future major leaguer Bert Daniels three times in a 4-3 loss.

KALAMAZOO FOUND KRAPP

FILED UP EARLY LEAD AND BEAT OUT TECUMSEH.

Kalamazoo, Mich., June 3.—(Special).—Kalamazoo, by timely hitting and assisted by two costly errors on the part of the visitors, defeated Tecumseh before two thousand people today by a score of 7 to 6. With the score 7 to 1, the visitors had a batting rally in the eighth and came within one tally of tying the score. They made six hits in this inning. Kalamazoo players did their best batting in the third inning when they fell on Krapp for four hits netting three runs. Score:

KAZOO NINE LEAVES FIELD

Tecumseh, Mich., July 30.—(Special).—Today's game with Kalamazoo, hard fought, full of snappy plays and wrangling with the umpire, ended in Kalamazoo walking off the field in the eighth inning. The visitors found Doty for three hits in the first inning and scored one run. The locals scored two in the fifth on an error and a home run drive over the fence by Brasley, and one in the seventh on two hits, a walk and a sacrifice.

In the eighth Method got first on an error. Bolin singled, Parker was thrown out at first by Doty, and Method was declared out by the umpire, on the ground that he left third before the ball was caught. Upon this Manager Meyers took his team from the grounds, and the umpire forfeited the game. Score:

August 10

In a little bit of an oddity, all three Southern Michigan League games extend into extra innings ... Kalamazoo beats Jackson 7-5 in 14 innings ... in a pair of 12 inning games, Battle Creek edges Saginaw 4-3 and Tecumseh hands Mt. Clemens a 2-1 setback.

August 14

Saginaw's Casey Horn allows only five hits in a 7-2 win over visiting Battle Creek before a small Wednesday afternoon crowd of 200.

August 28

Detroit native Archie Neuschafer allows only five hits over 12 shutout innings as Mt. Clemens tops Kalamazoo 1-0.

September 15

September 23

On the final day of the regular season, Tecumseh's Fred Merkle makes his pitching debut relieving Sis Hopkins in the third inning ... Merkle strikes out five and allows one run in 3 2/3 innings in a 5-0 loss to Kalamazoo.

NOTES

Heine Steiger, the only southpaw in the league, is sold to the Detroit Tigers ... Infielder Charles Bolin retires from baseball to take up law ... on August 29, David Lajoie, brother of Nap Lajoie, manager of the Cleveland Club and the American League's star player, was released by Battle Creek and left for his home in Massachusetts ... Lajoie is but 18 years old, and while a clever fielder, was unable to make a hit in the three games in which he was tried out ... Joe Jackson's Southern Michigan League ended the season discovering a nice little balance in the treasury.
