

Norfolk Tars right-hander Bill Sucky teams with 18-year-old catcher Yogi Berra to pitch a seven-inning no-hitter against the Durham Bulls in the first game of a Piedmont (B) League double-header at Norfolk's Tar Park.

Jack Phillips' solo home run in the bottom of the sixth inning, his seventh of the year, provides the game's lone run.

The 1-0 victory is Sucky's sixth shutout of the season and fifth in a row at Tar Park, extending his streak of consecutive scoreless innings to 44 in a row.

Sucky compiles a 33-47 career mark for nine teams in five minor league seasons (1941-1945). The Belmont, Ohio native finishes 10-9 with a 2.26 ERA for the Tars in 1943, his only winning season during his professional career. Sucky passes away on February 27, 1987 in Norfolk, Virginia, from a cardiac arrest at the age of 66.
